Setfinder Query

Setfinder queries are used to create a set of patients that satisfy a criteria presented in the query. The setfinder qury is composed of query constraints, a list of panels and its items.