Security

Users can access the CRC with domain-id, project-id, user-id and password combination, which is authenticated through the Project Management Cell. The implementation detail of the Project Management Cell is considered out-of-scope to this system context.

- Further details regarding the implementation of the Project Management cell can be found in the PM_Install_Guide.