

Decomposition Style -

The Decomposition style presents the functionality in terms of manageable work pieces. They can be further decomposed to present higher level of details. The decomposition view identifies modules and breaks them down into sub-modules and so on, until a desired level of granularity is achieved.

Primary Presentation

System	Segment
Project Management Server	Project Manager

Element Catalog

Element Name	Type	Description
Project Manager	Subsystem	This subsystem manages queries for the user and cell operations.

Context Diagram

