Objectives of Workplace View

Information in the workplace is related to the most common concepts and queries that an individual uses and in essence becomes their personal workplace. There are three main objectives of this view.

1. Save and organize user specific workplace.
2. Share information with other project users.
3. Workplace for all team members; can be viewed only by the project manager.