Run Query view

The Run Query view is the i2b2 Workbench view for the CRC Test plug-in. This view is used to load a group of XML files known as test cases that will test the CRC web services by running the query defined in the XML file.

The sub-pages within this space will outline the layout of the Run Query view, how to load files and run the tests. It will also explain the results and how to print them.