Functional Requirements-

To assist with workflow and overall ease of use, individual will now be able to easily say key concepts, common queries and valuable patient sets in one central location. In addition, they will be able to combine these areas as well as others to formulate templates to assist in the process of gathering information throughout the project. An outline of what can be stored in the workplace and the related functionality is listed below.